1. Only rear details were observed at the Moltke, Krueger, Adolf Hitler, and Fritsch Kasernen in Schwerin on 19 September 1951. Only rear details were seen at the airfield at Schwerin-Gorries on the same day. Only rear details were observed at the Flugplatz Kaserne in Hagenow on 17 September. Local residents said that some troops engaged in field exercises in the area south of Sternbuchholz.
2. On 17 September, 800-1,000 artillery soldiers of the 207th Guards Motorized Division loaded in Stendal and departed toward Magdeburg. These soldiers had not returned by 24 September. Previous departures of units from Stendal to Magdeburg included soldiers with 12 tanks on 4 September by rail, and about 2,000 men on 20 trucks of the 207th Guards Motorized Rifle Division by road on 6 September. The destination of these units could not be determined. Vehicles of the 207th Guards Rifle Division were still observed only in Letzling Heath.
3. On 20 September, four artillery units moved into the southern section of the Dolius Kaserne in Potsdam. Vehicles seen there belonged to the unidentified artillery division in Potsdam and the Second Guards AAA Division. The artillery division headquarters from Mildpark moved into the former hospital on 22 September.
